

Detailed Table of Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments xvii

Chapter 1

Introduction 1

- A. Government by the People 1
- B. Democracy and Limited Government 3
- C. Democracy and Accountability 3
- D. About This Book: Accountability and Law 5

Chapter 2

Constitutional Basis for Canadian Democracy:
An Overview 9

- A. Democracy in Canada's Written Constitution 10
- B. Democracy in Canada's Unwritten Constitution 12
  - 1. Overview 12
  - 2. The "Democracy Principle" 13
  - 3. Implications of the Unwritten Democracy Principle 16
    - a) The Legal Impact 16

- b) The Troubling Provenance 18
- C. Parliamentary Supremacy and the Separation of Powers 20
  - 1. Separation of Powers Between the Executive and Parliament 27
    - a) Parliament's Jurisdictional Supremacy 22
    - b) Parliament's Institutional Supremacy 31
  - 2. Separation of Powers Between the Judiciary and Parliament 37
    - a) Jurisdictional Separation of Powers 38
    - b) Institutional Separation of Powers 62
- D. Conclusion 74

Chapter 3

Voting, Elections and the Selection of Members of Parliament 75

- A. Voting and Electoral Rights 76
  - 1. Constitutional Voting Rights 76
    - a) Effective Representation and the Right to Participate in Elections 77
    - b) Effective Representation and the Right to a Roughly Equal Impact on Electoral Outcomes 79
  - 2. Statutory Voting Rights 80
    - a) The Right to Vote in the Elections Act 80
    - b) Protection of the Right to Vote 81
    - c) The Right to Representation and Electoral Boundary Readjustment 83
- B. The Key Actors in Elections 86
  - 1. Electoral Officials 86
    - a) The Chief Electoral Officer 86
    - b) Returning Officers 87
  - 2. Parties and Candidates 89
    - a) Parties 89
    - b) Electoral District Associations 94
    - c) Party Leaders 94
    - d) Nomination Contestants and Candidates 95
- C. How Elections Are Run 97
  - 1. How Elections Are Triggered 97
    - a) General Elections 97

- b) By-elections 97
  - 2. Electoral Financing 100
    - a) Competing Values 100
    - b) Expenses 103
    - c) Donation Limits 106
    - d) Public Subsidies 114
    - e) Electoral Finance Disclosure 116
  - 3. Election Advertising 118
    - a) Advertising Rules Generally 118
    - b) Third-Party Spending Limits 124
    - c) Government Advertising 131
  - 4. Voter's List 132
- D. After the Vote 132
  - 1. Reporting on Election Results 133
  - 2. Judicial Recounts and Contested Elections 134
    - a) Recounts 134
    - b) Contested Elections 134
  - 3. Enforcement and Penalties 135
- E. Emerging Issues in Canada's Election Law and Policy 136
  - 1. Voter Participation 136
  - 2. Fixed Election Dates 139
  - 3. Leaders' Debates 140
  - 4. Proportional Representation 141
    - a) Canada's Current First-Past-the-Post System 141
    - b) Proportional Representation 143
  - 5. Toward a More Diverse Parliament 151
  - 6. Recall 154
  - 7. Referendums 156
    - a) Overview 156
    - b) Pros and Cons of Referendums 158
    - c) Legal Issues 159
    - d) Referendum Mechanics 161
- F. Conclusion 162

Chapter 4

The Selection, Tenure and Dismissal of Unelected Officials 165

- A. Legislative Branch Unelected Officials 168
  - 1. Monarch and Governor General 168
    - a) Appointment 169
    - b) Tenure and Dismissal 173
    - c) Reform 175
  - 2. The Senate 178
    - a) Appointment 178
    - b) Tenure and Dismissal 185
    - c) Senate Reform 190
  - 3. Employees of Parliament and Parliamentary Political Staff 199
- B. Executive Branch Unelected Officials 200
  - 1. Members of the Ministry and Cabinet 200
    - a) Defining the Ministry and Cabinet 201
    - b) Prime Minister 203
    - c) Ministers and Ministers of State 212
  - 2. Ministerial Political Staff 215
  - 3. Professional Public Service 216
    - a) Appointment 216
    - b) Dismissal 222
    - c) Conclusion 233
  - 4. Nonjudicial Governor-in-Council Appointees 233
    - a) Appointment 234
    - b) Tenure and Dismissal 238
    - c) Reform 241
  - 5. Officers of Parliament 246
    - a) Appointment 247
    - b) Dismissal 248
    - c) Financial and Administrative Independence 254
    - d) Conclusion 256
- C. Judicial Branch 257
  - 1. Appointment 258
    - a) Non-Supreme Court Federal Appointments 260
    - b) Supreme Court Appointments 269
  - 2. Financial and Administrative Independence 290
  - 3. Removing Judges: Security of Tenure and Judicial Independence 291
    - a) Canadian Judicial Council 291
    - b) Address of Parliament 292
- D. Conclusion 294

*Chapter 5Parliament, Democracy and the Legislative Process 297

- A. The Parliamentary Legislative Enterprise 298
  - 1. Overview of the Parliament of Canada 298
    - a) Summoning, Prorogation and Dissolution of Parliament 298
    - b) The Sources of Parliamentary Procedure 303
    - c) Key Parliamentary Actors 304
    - d) Rules of Debate and Decision-Making in the Commons 319
  - 2. Parliament's Legislative Function 325
    - a) Parliament's Legislative Jurisdiction 325
    - b) Enacting Parliamentary Legislation 327
- B. Executive Law-Making 337
  - 1. Types of Executive Laws 338
    - a) Definition of a Statutory Instrument 338
    - b) Definition of a Regulation 339
  - 2. Executive Branch Regulation-Making 340
    - a) Process 340
    - b) Parliamentary Role 342
  - 3. Nonregulatory Orders-in-Council 343
    - a) Less Transparent Procedure 344
    - b) No Parliamentary Revocation Powers 344
  - 4. Executive Law-Making Jurisdiction and the Role of the Courts 345
    - a) Ensuring That Delegated Legislation Is Authorized by Parliamentary Grant or Some Other Source 345
    - b) Due Process and Delegated Legislation 347
- C. Conclusion 349

*Chapter 6Parliament, Cabinet, Democracy and Responsible Government 352

- A. Cabinet's Role in Executive Governance 353
  - 1. Cabinet Procedure and Structure 353
    - a) Cabinet Purpose and Organization 353
    - b) Cabinet Solidarity and Confidence 354
  - 2. Structure of Executive Government 355

- a) Structural Hierarchy 355
- b) Cabinet Control over Structure 357
- 3. Executive Branch Accountability Mechanisms 359
  - a) Institutional Control: The Role of the Central Agencies 360
  - b) Public and Departmental Inquiries 361
- 4. Conclusion 369
- B. Responsibility to Parliament 370
  - 1. The Collective Responsibility of Cabinet 370
    - a) Resignation of the Government 370
    - b) Cabinet's Responsibility to Parliament for Overall Government Policy 373
    - c) The Government's Responsibility on Financial Matters 376
  - 2. The Individual Responsibility of Ministers 384
    - a) Legal and Political Culpability for Wrongdoing by Department Officials 385
    - b) Ministerial Responsibility to Inform Parliament 392
  - 3. Officers of Parliament 404
    - a) Parliamentary Reporting Function 405
    - b) Office of the Auditor General 406
- C. Conclusion 409

Chapter 7

Democracy, Ethics and Governance in the Public Interest 410

- A. Core Principles of Canadian Ethics Rules 411
  - 1. Regulating the Private Interest 411
  - 2. Ethics and the Allure of Public Service 412
- B. Legal Standards 413
  - 1. Criminal Code Provisions 413
  - 2. Parliament of Canada Act Provisions 415
  - 3. Civil Law Standards 416
- C. Ethical Codes of Conduct for the Ministry and Parliamentarians 417
  - 1. Ethics Commissioner and Senate Ethics Officer 417
    - a) General Functions 417
    - b) Independence 418
    - c) The Ethics Commissioner's Bifurcated Responsibilities 419

2. MP Code 421
    - a) General Principles 421
    - b) Specific Provisions 422
  3. Public Office Holders Code 426
    - a) Principles 427
    - b) Compliance Measures 428
  4. When the Public Office Holders Code and the MP Code Apply 437
    - a) Application of MP Code 438
    - b) Application of Public Office Holders Code 439
  5. Standard of Judicial Review for Ethics Matters: MPs, Senators and Public Office Holders 442
    - a) Judicial Review of Ethics Commissioner Decisions 442
    - b) Legal Status of the Codes 444
  6. Professional Responsibility Obligations 449
- D. Public Servants Code 450
1. Values and General Principles 450
  2. Disclosure 452
  3. Specific Duties in the Course of Employment 452
  4. Post-employment 454
  5. Enforcement and Oversight 455
- E. Ethics Rules for Judges 456
- F. Conclusion 457

Chapter 8

Lobbying, Democracy and Governance in the Public Interest 458

- A. Lobbying: An Overview 459
- B. The Lobbying Industry 460
- C. The Law of Lobbyist Regulation 461
  1. The Lobbyists Registration Act 462
    - a) Application 462
    - b) Registration 465
    - c) Exceptions to Registration 470
    - d) Lawyers as Lobbyists 470
  2. The Lobbyists' Code of Conduct 471
    - a) Overview 471

- b) Legal Status and Oversight of the Lobbyists' Code 472
- 3. Important Regulatory Issues Not Addressed in the LRA 475
  - a) Contingency Fees 475
  - b) Multitasking Lobbyists 477

D. Conclusion: An Alternative to Lobbying? 478

Chapter 9

Information and the Currency of Democracy 481

A. Information Disclosure 482

- 1. Information Disclosure and Democracy 482
- 2. International Context 484
  - a) Access to Information as an International Right 484
  - b) International "Best Practices" for Information Access 486
- 3. Canada's Federal "Open Government" Information Laws 487
  - a) Access to Information Act 487
  - b) Privacy Act 512
  - c) Judicial Review of Exemption Decisions under the Access and Privacy Acts 518

B. Protecting Privacy 525

- 1. Privacy and Democracy 525
- 2. International Standards 527
- 3. Federal Privacy Laws 528
  - a) Constitutional Protections 528
  - b) Privacy Act 529
  - c) Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act 532

C. The National Security Challenge to Access and to Privacy 540

- 1. Legitimate National Security Constraints on Access to Information 540
  - a) Openness and National Security 541
  - b) The Johannesburg Principles on National Security and Information Access 541
- 2. Canadian Government Secrecy Laws 543
  - a) Security of Information Act 544
  - b) National Security Exemptions Under the Access and Privacy Acts and the PIPEDA 552
  - c) Canada Evidence Act and the National Security Exclusions Under the Access and Privacy Acts 555

- d) Extraneous National Security-Related Restrictions on Privacy 560
- D. Conclusion 573

Chapter 10

Democratic Governance in Times of Emergency 576

- A. Emergency Powers and International Law 579
- B. Emergency Powers and the Constitution 580
  - 1. Canadian Bill of Rights 580
  - 2. Charter of Rights and Freedoms 581
    - a) Section 33 581
    - b) Section 1 582
    - c) Section 4(2) 582
- C. Emergency Powers in Statutory Law 584
  - 1. Emergencies Act 585
    - a) Content 585
    - b) Parliamentary Oversight 586
    - c) Judicial Review of Orders and Regulations under the Emergencies Act 592
  - 2. National Defence Act 596
  - 3. Emergency Preparedness Act 598
  - 4. Public Safety Act 599
- D. Conclusion 599

Chapter 11

Democratic Accountability in a Globalized Confederation 601

- A. The Internationalization of Public Policy 601
  - 1. The Democratic Deficit and Intergovernmental Organizations 602
  - 2. The Democratic Deficit and the Separation of Powers 603
  - 3. Responses 607
- B. Other Levels of Government Within Canada 609
  - 1. Law and Democracy at the Provincial and Municipal Level 609
  - 2. Law and Democracy in Canada's First Nations 610
  - 3. The Challenges of Diffuse Government 613

C. Conclusion 615

Chapter 12

Concluding Thoughts on the Law of Canadian Democracy 616

A. The Democratic Selection of Officials 616

B. The Accountability of Unelected Officials 617

1. Selection, Dismissal and Ethics 617

2. Parliamentary Oversight 618

3. Transparency 618

C. How Much Law Is Enough? 619

Appendix 1

The Public Administration of Canada 621

Appendix 2

Statistical Trends in Law-Making 637

Glossary 645

Table of Cases 653

Index 667

About the Authors 689